

FAMILY LAW SOLICITOR (Part-time)

DBL Solicitors is a well-known market leader with an established client base and excellent reputation.

We enjoy a diverse client base across a broad range of practice areas including family law services in 4 locations: Brisbane CBD, Carina, Morningside and Wynnum.

A rare opportunity is on offer for a suitably qualified practitioner to join our dynamic and growing Family Law team in our WYNNUM office.

We seek an enthusiastic Solicitor with Family Law experience to work on a part-time basis initially, with opportunity to move to full-time in response to sustained growth within their practice. Once established within our team, work from home (WFH) flexibility can be arranged if required. Ideally the successful applicant will have the ability to manage their own files and work closely with the principals and other professionals in the firm.

The successful candidate will enjoy both supervision and the ability to expand his or her practice.

The position offers:

- Great team environment and culture;
- Access to both City and suburban office locations;
- Diverse and rewarding work;
- Broad and growing client base;
- Excellent work/life balance with WFH flexibility;
- Career growth opportunities; and
- Autonomy with supervision where required.

About you:

- A team player who is engaging and results driven;
- Professional, well presented with a positive disposition;

- Strong drafting and technical skills;
- Experience in conducting litigation in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia;
- Experience in conducting mediations;
- Excellent communication skills to service our diverse and loyal client base;
- Contribute to the growth and presence of the firm in the local bayside area;
- Highly adaptable with a client service focused approach.

About the position:

The firm will provide you with the platform to manage your own files and build your profile in a positive and supportive environment.

Opportunities to work across other practice areas may be available although this is not a requirement.

Salary commensurate with experience and ability.
